"United through the Cross"

March 26, 2012

Mr. and Mrs.
Xxxxxx
Palmetto Bay, FL 33157

Dear Mr. and Mrs. XXXX:

As Christians around the world get ready to celebrate Easter, I wish upon you and your loved ones the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Resurrection of the Lord is the most important celebration in our Catholic Faith, and as part of the celebration we will be observing a silent procession on the streets of our neighborhood surrounding the church.

The silent procession will take place on Good Friday, April 6, and will depart the church on 152nd Street at 8:30 p.m. It will turn right on 74th Place, right on 156th Street, right on 77th Ave, and right again on 152nd Street to return to the church. The procession will be escorted by Palmetto Bay Police officers and will not require any street closures.

Should you have any questions or concerns, I kindly request that you contact Monica Daes at the church office, at (305) 233-8711, extension 108, or e-mail her at mdaes@holyrosarystrichard.org.

Please accept my gratitude in advance for your support.

Sincerely in Christ our Lord,

Rev. Luis A. Pérez
Pastor
