An aerial photograph of the Village's Bridal Expo at Thalatta Estate. The event is held on a large, paved area with a brick pattern, surrounded by lush greenery and palm trees. Numerous white tents are set up, and many people are seen walking around, interacting, and dining. The scene is bright and festive, with a clear sky and well-maintained grounds.

Seniors, take note! You'll be singing, "Take me out to the ball game" about this special event.

On Thursday, September 20th, the Village of Palmetto Bay will be hosting a "Seniors Night Out." Residents aged 65+ are inviting to join the fun and watch The Miami Marlins take on the Cincinnati Reds at Marlins Park, live and in person, not just on TV. Student Shutterbugs, (and their parents), you'll be interested in this! The 2018 "Village of Parks" Student Photography Contest is now underway. Staffers running the contest say, "We want to see the 'Village of Parks' through your eyes." The theme this time is Community, A Positive view on life in Palmetto Bay. The Deadline is September 28. There are cash prizes. This contest is open to High School Students residing in Palmetto Bay. Winners will be recognized during the Mayor's State of the Village Address. Register at the village's website, <www.palmettobay-fl.gov>. Don't delay!

And don't forget the Farmers Market... the next one is on September 16, from 8:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m. at Coral Reef

Park, 7895 SW 152nd Street, Palmetto Bay, FL 33157.

Arts Festival... And a heads-up for a nearby event. There'll be a first time Arts Festival at the Kendall United Methodist Church on October 6 that promises to be really nice. There'll be fine arts and fine crafts, Volkswagen cars on display, food vendors, activities for kids, and lots more, all to raise funds to benefit programs and groups in the community and to bring folks together. The Church is located at 7600 SW 104th Street in Pinecrest. The art festival runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Don't miss it!
