Missy,

I have no transcripts, nor am I required to have them per Village Attorney Dexter Lehtinen. The 1st time I met with FPL it was approximately 6 months ago (prior to me suggesting and the passing of the 6 month moratorium) and I walked the site with Village Manager Ed Silva. The 2nd follow up meeting was with the potential developer, their attorneys and our Village Attorney Mr. Lehtinen. Please inform Jane Bleakley if she has any interest in what was discussed she is more than welcome to call me on my cell.

Respectfully,

David Singer

Hello Melissa,

Earlier today, I visited City Hall and spoke with you about obtaining a transcript of the discussions held by Councilman David Singer with officials of FPL, regarding the property which is currently being considered for development.

The fact that these meetings took place was brought up at a full meeting of the Village Council which occurred several days ago.

For verification purposes, I am a resident of Palmetto Bay, residing at 6008 Paradise Point Drive. I am also the president of the Royal Harbour Yacht Club Townhouse Owners' Association.

Thank you in advance for your help,

Jane Bleakley
