

Palmetto Panther's Baby / Navy Game

Palmetto Bay Park
January 30, 2009

It would take much more than a brisk winter wind and a few raindrops to dampen the enthusiasm Friday night (Jan. 30) at Palmetto Bay Park. Members of the Palmetto Bay Village Council engaged in healthy debate over who would throw the first pitch at the annual Baby/Navy Intra-squad Game for the Miami Palmetto State Champion Girls Softball team. Pictured (l to r) are Councilman Howard J. Tendrich, Councilwoman Shelley Stanczyk, 10th-grade Navy Blue player Taylor Waddell of Pinecrest, Mayor Eugene Flinn, 11th-grade Baby Blue player Jackie Roy of Palmetto Bay, and Vice Mayor Brian W. Pariser. Councilwoman Stanczyk won the honor of the first pitch – and put it right over home plate.
