

‘Getting Fresh’ at the Open-Air Market

Grand Opening, Nov. 2, 2008

Franjo Triangle / Commercial Island (FT&I) Commercial Island

(1) Palmetto Bay’s Open Air Market officially opens for business Nov. 2 in the heart of the Franjo Triangle / Commercial Island District between the north- and south-bound lanes of US-1 at 174 St. Participating in Sunday’s ribbon-cutting ceremony are (front, l to r) Councilmember Edward Feller MD, Vice Mayor Linda Robinson, Councilmember Shelley Stanczyk, Director-Planning & Zoning Arleen Weintraub, Administrative Aides Jian Santana and Vanessa Bencomo, Katherine and Meredith Flinn, Mayor Eugene P. Flinn; (back l to r) Village Council Eve Boutsis, Councilmember Paul Neidhart, Code Compliance Officer Luis Carcamo, Village and Manager Ron Williams.

(2) see cap below

(3) see cap below

(2) PJ Keagle, of 144th and 95 Ave. in Palmetto Bay (blue shirt), and Susan Miller of Kalamazoo, Mich., pick up fresh veggies on the first day of Palmetto Bay's Open-Air Market, with the able assistance of vendor Jeffrey Walden of The Market Company.

(3) Palmetto Bay resident Paz Monteleone, of 177 Terrace and 89 Ave., picks from a peck of peppers provided by vendor Mayra Cordova and her daughter Melanie.

(4) Fresh organic salads provided by Lamoy's Living foods.

(5) A view from the south end of the Market, during set-up.

