

Proposal#1

Integration of the wall to the building architecture, using the image to give the sensation there is no wall and to show what it is behind it. The work is complete designed in mosaics, using the wall colors will create a minimalist form.

The work will have different shades, textures and luminosity, natural light as a complement element.

Proposal #1