

Village of Palmetto Bay Policing Unit Blood Drive

~ July 2, 2009 ~

Mayor Flinn packs a pint to help keep blood supplies at acceptable levels over the Fourth of July holiday period.

Commander Truitt (l) and Officer Friendly (Peter Judge) in the line of duty.

Councilwoman Shelley Stanczyk makes it all look so easy...

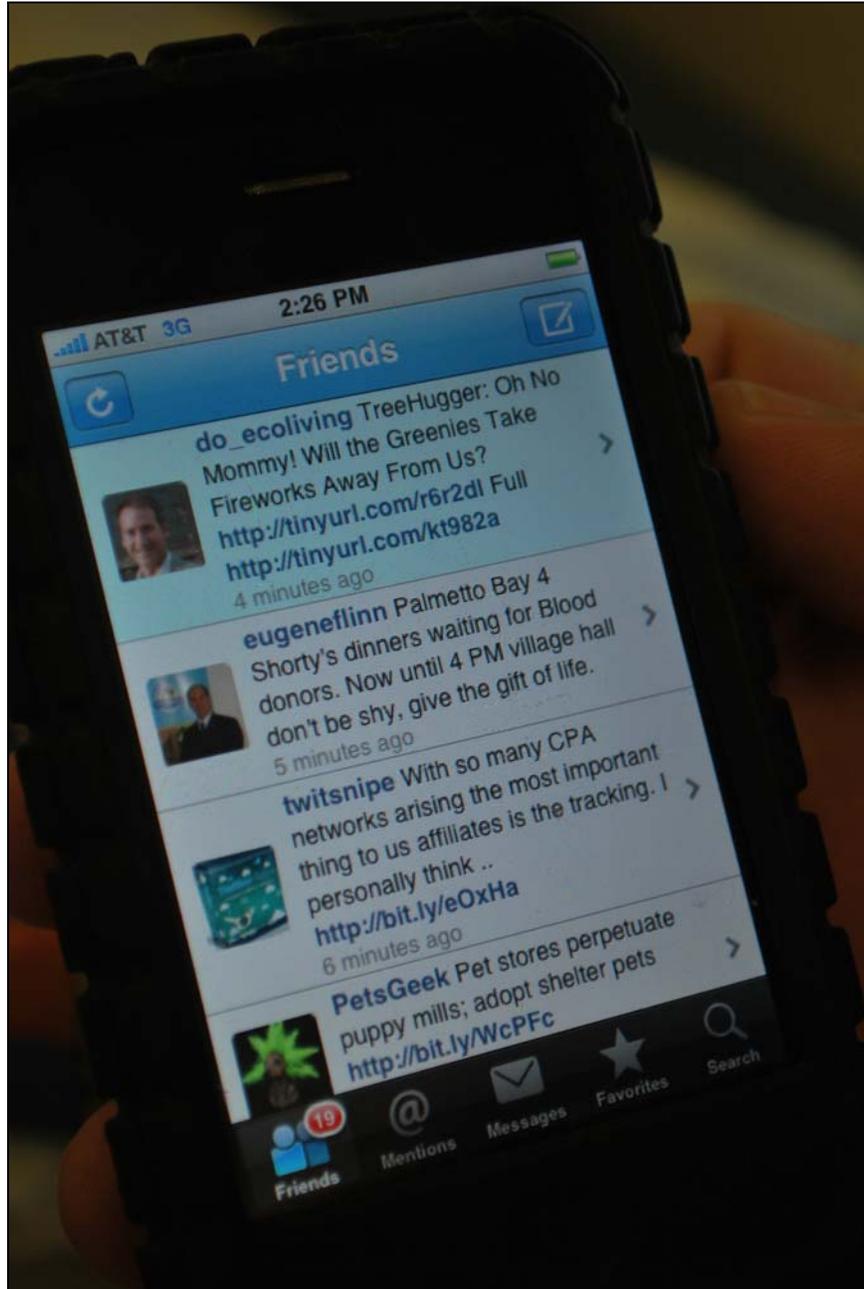

Councilwoman Stanczyk signs the proper forms while Tiffany Patterson of the Village Policing Unit looks waits her turn.

Two blood mobiles were called into action to handle the lunch-hour rush of donors.

A familiar face in the dunk tank again?!

Mayor Flinn's Twitter, while he was donating, "draws" more interest in the blood drive.
