

PALMER DONATES $50,000 TO PALMETTO BAY

Palmer Trinity School (PTS) recently presented the Village of Palmetto Bay with three bike repair stations and a check for $50,000 as its contribution to the Village's bike lane initiatives. The presentation took place on campus. Attendees included faculty, students, Head of School Patrick Roberts, Chairman of the Board of Trustees Michael Baiamonte, and Village of Palmetto Bay Mayor Eugene Flinn, Jr., Vice Mayor John Dubois, Councilmembers Larissa Siegel Lara, Karyn Cunningham and Tim Schaffer, and Village Manager Edward Silva. "Both students and faculty eagerly anticipated the opportunity to continue solidifying the partnership we have been cultivating with the Village of Palmetto Bay over the past two years with our contribution to the community's bike lane initiatives," expressed Patrick Roberts, head of school.

COLOR RUN ADDS KIDS RUN FOR 2016

Back by popular demand, Palmetto High School's PTA is hosting their Second Annual Color Run on Nov. 5th, 2016 at Coral Reef Park. The Kid's Fun Run will begin at 4pm and the 5k will start directly following. Palmetto High has once again teamed with the City of Palmetto Bay and this year, Food Truck Invasion will be participating to make sure there is something for everyone to eat... without having to shower off all your beautiful colors! All proceeds are directly benefiting the students of Palmetto Senior High School.

BOOKS & BOOKS FOUNDER TO RECEIVE AWARD

Mitchell Kaplan, founder of Books & Books Bookstore and co-founder of Miami Book Fair, will receive the prestigious ArtesMiami Lydia Cabrera Award on Friday, October 14, 2016, at a luncheon presented by U.S. Century Bank, one of the top ten Hispanic-owned community banks in the U.S. The award, named in memory of Lydia Cabrera, world-renowned writer and expert in Afro-Cuban culture, honors individuals who have made a significant contribution to the cultural development of South Florida. It includes a $1000 cash prize and a ceramics work of art by Miami artist Rodrigo de la Luz.
