24.01 Tenant covenants and agrees that during the term of this Agreement, Tenant will obtain any and all necessary permits, licenses and approvals, and that all use of the Premises will be in conformance with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, including all applicable zoning regulations.

24.02 Any and all charges, taxes, or assessments levied against the Premises shall be paid by Tenant, and failure to do so will constitute a breach of this Agreement.

24.03 Landlord as Sovereign

It is expressly understood that notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement and the Landlord's status thereunder:

(a) The Landlord retains all of its sovereign prerogatives and rights and regulatory authority as a county under Florida laws and shall in no way be estopped from withholding or refusing to issue any approvals of applications for building, zoning, planning or development under present or future laws and regulations of whatever nature applicable to the planning, design, construction and development of the Premises or the operation thereof, or be liable for the same; and

(b) The Landlord shall not by virtue of this Agreement be obligated to grant the Tenant any approvals of applications for building, zoning, planning or development under present or future laws and ordinances of whatever nature applicable to the planning, design, construction, development and/or operation of the Premises.

24.04. No Liability for Exercise of Police Power

Notwithstanding and prevailing over any contrary provision in this Agreement, or any Landlord covenant or obligation that may be contained in this Agreement, or any implied or perceived duty or obligation including but not limited to the following:

(a) To cooperate with, or provide good faith, diligent, reasonable or other similar efforts to assist the Tenant, regardless of the purpose required for such cooperation;

(b) To execute documents or give approvals, regardless of the purpose required for such execution or approvals;

(c) To apply for or assist the Tenant in applying for any county, city or third party permit or needed approval; or revoked in the discretion of the Landlord or any other applicable governmental agencies in the exercise of its police power; and the Landlord shall be released and held harmless, by the Tenant from and against any liability, responsibility, claims, consequential or other damages, or losses to the Tenant or to any third parties resulting from denial, withholding or revocation (in whole or in part) of any zoning or other changes, variances, permits, waivers, amendments, or approvals of any kind or nature whatsoever. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties recognize that the approval of any building permit and/or site plan application if applicable will require the Landlord to exercise its quasi-judicial or police powers. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Landlord shall have no obligation to approve, in whole or in part, any application for any type of permit, license, zoning or any other type of matter requiring government approval or waiver. The Landlord's obligation to use reasonable good faith efforts in the permitting of the use of Premises shall not extend to any exercise of quasi-judicial or police powers, and shall be limited solely to ministerial actions, including the timely acceptance and processing of any requests or inquiries by Tenant as authorized by this Agreement. Moreover, in no event shall a failure of the Landlord to adopt any of the Tenant's request or application for any type of permit, license, zoning or any other type of matter requiring government approval or waiver be construed a breach or default of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 25
FORCE MAJEURE

25.01 The Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that term "Force Majeure" in this Agreement, and when applied to this Agreement, shall mean an unforeseen event or occurrence that is beyond the control of one or both of the parties, such as a war, strike, riot, crime, acts of nature, or act of God (e.g., flooding, earthquake, hurricane) that in fact prevents one or both parties from fulfilling their respective obligation(s) in a timely manner under this Agreement. Force Majeure shall excuse the party or parties from liability or obligation only during the period of time when the extraordinary event occurs and the circumstances beyond the party or parties' control continue to prevent the party or parties from performance under this Agreement. Force Majeure is specifically not intended to shield or otherwise excuse the negligence or malfeasance of a party, as where non-performance is caused by lack of foresight, prudence and/or failure to exercise precautionary measures.

25.02 A party asserting Force Majeure as an excuse for delay or non-performance shall have the burden of proving that failure to perform could not have been avoided by the exercise of due care by that party, that reasonable steps were taken to minimize any delay, as well as to avoid any damages caused by subsequent foreseeable events, that all non-excused obligations were timely fulfilled, and that the other party was timely notified, in writing, of the likelihood of or the actual occurrence of the extraordinary event which would justify such an assertion, so that reasonable measures could be contemplated and possibly taken by the other party, and the other party has in fact recognized, in writing to the party asserting a claim of Force Majeure, that the occurrence is an event equating to Force Majeure.

25.03 Tenant and Landlord shall be excused only for the period of any delay associated with the Force Majeure event, and shall not be deemed in default with respect to the performance of any of the non-monetary terms, covenants, and conditions of this Agreement when prevented from so doing by cause or causes beyond Tenant's or Landlord's control, excluding filing of bankruptcy, but which shall include, without limitation, all labor disputes, governmental regulations or controls, fire or other casualty, acts of God, or any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing, not within the control of Tenant or Landlord.

ARTICLE 26 WAIVER

26.01 If, under the provisions hereof, Landlord or Tenant shall institute proceedings and a compromise or settlement thereof shall be made, the same shall not constitute a waiver of any covenant herein contained nor of any of Landlord's or Tenant's rights hereunder, unless expressly stated in such settlement agreement. No waiver by Landlord or Tenant of any provision hereof shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by both parties. No waiver by Landlord or Tenant of any breach of covenant, condition, or agreement herein contained shall operate as a waiver of such covenant, condition, or agreement itself, or of any subsequent breach thereof. No payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of lesser amount than the annual payments of rent (or additional rent if such obligations are stipulated) shall be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated rent, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or letter accompanying a check for payment of rent or any other amounts owed to Landlord be deemed an accord and satisfaction and Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to or waiver of Landlord's right to recover the balance of such rent or other amount owed or to pursue any other remedy provided in this Agreement. Further, any endorsement or statement on any check or letter accompanying a check for payment of rent or any other amounts owed to Landlord may not be deemed to limit or restrict the Landlord in any manner whatsoever, and such endorsement or statement shall have no effect whatsoever, and shall be deemed to have never been written at all. No reentry by Landlord shall be considered an acceptance of a surrender of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 27 DEFAULT OF TENANT AND REMEDIES

27.01 Consistent with and in addition to Article 21, Termination, above, if Tenant shall fail to pay any annual payment or item of rent on the date when the same becomes due and if such violation or failure continues for a period of ten (10) calendar days after written notice thereof to Tenant by Landlord, then Landlord may proceed with any remedy available at law or in equity in the State of Florida or by such other proceedings, including reentry and possession, as may be applicable.

27.02 Consistent with and in addition to Article 21, Termination, above, should Tenant elect or fail to perform or observe any covenant or condition of this Agreement (other than a default involving the payment of rent), which default has not been cured within ten (10) calendar days after the giving of notice by Landlord, unless such default is of such nature that it cannot be cured within such ten (10) day period, in which case no event of default shall occur so long as Tenant shall commence the curing of the default within such ten (10) day period and shall thereafter diligently prosecute the curing of same, and/or such remedy for any such default is not otherwise addressed in this Agreement, then the Landlord shall be permitted to terminate this Agreement, and immediately take possession of the Premises.

27.03 Should Tenant vacate or abandon, or fail to take occupancy of, the Premises at any time during the term of this Agreement, Landlord shall be permitted to immediately take possession of the Premises.

27.04 Upon any default, and after the expiration of any cure period, Landlord may, with or without judicial process, enter upon the Premises and take possession of any and all improvements and all personal property of Tenant situated in the Premises, without liability for trespass or conversion, and may sell or otherwise dispose of any and all such property after thirty (30) calendar days' notice to Tenant, which notice shall constitute reasonable and sufficient notice (so long as such property is valued by the Landlord at more than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, otherwise, such property shall be considered abandoned by the Tenant, and Landlord shall have no obligation to either store, maintain, sell or otherwise dispose of the personal property). The proceeds of any such sale or disposition shall be applied first to the payment of all costs and expenses of conducting the sale and/or caring for and/or storing said property, including attorneys' fees; second, toward the payment of any indebtedness, including (without limitation) indebtedness for rent and other expenses, which may be due or become due to Landlord; and third, to pay Tenant, on demand in writing, any surplus remaining after all indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord has been fully paid, so long as Tenant in fact makes such demand within sixty (60) calendar days of any such sale or disposition of property.

27.05 Upon any default, Landlord may perform, on behalf of and at the expense of the Tenant, any obligation of Tenant under this Agreement which Tenant has failed to perform and of which Landlord shall have given Tenant notice of, the cost of which performance by Landlord, together with interest thereon, at the highest legal rate of interest as permitted by the State of Florida, and shall be immediately payable by Tenant to Landlord.

27.06 Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that notwithstanding the provisions of Section 27.05 above, and regardless of whether an event of default shall have occurred, Landlord may exercise the remedy described in Section 27.05 without any notice to Tenant if Landlord, in its good faith judgment, believes it would be injured by failure to take rapid action or if the unperformed obligation by Tenant constitutes an emergency.

27.07 If this Agreement is terminated or cancelled by Landlord, Tenant nevertheless shall remain liable for any and all rent and damages which may be due, become due or sustained by Landlord, along with any and all reasonable costs, fees and expenses including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in pursuit of its remedies hereunder, or in renting the Premises or a portion thereof to others.

27.08 All rights and remedies of Landlord under this Agreement shall be cumulative and shall not be exclusive of any other rights and remedies provided to Landlord under applicable law.

ARTICLE 28

not limited to, any agreement for confidentiality that it owes or may owe to any other governmental agency, and/or to any friend or member of a person's family.

Tenant expressly acknowledges and agrees that any and all security staff and equipment that Landlord has or may have for any adjacent or nearby property owned by the Landlord is there to solely protect and secure the Landlord and its interest in such property.
